

About IZYE

Meet IZYE — the Latina, Jewish trap-pop siren turning heartbreak into anthems and vibes into full moods. With smooth vocals, hypnotic trap beats, and unapologetic pop hooks, this Bay Area artist crafts emotionally charged songs that hit hard and linger. Think Ariana’s finesse, Demi’s rawness, Kehlani’s edge, and JoJo’s runs — all filtered through IZYE’s fearless voice.

She’s not just studio-polished — she’s been in the field. IZYE has collaborated with platinum artist Marc E. Bassy, toured with RUSSELL!, and is currently opening for the UK girl group FLO on their West Coast “Access All Areas” tour. A new single and video with Baby Tate drop in June, and Spanish-infused tracks are on the way as she expands into Latin America.

From the Troubadour to The Roxy, IZYE commands the stage with presence and purpose. She’s also worked with standout producers like Jaye Locke, Anwar Sawyer, and Momoward to develop a sound that’s uniquely hers.

Raised on powerhouse voices and late-night sessions, IZYE writes like she’s lived every lyric. Her music feels like a confession wrapped in a beat you can’t shake — bold, catchy, and impossible to ignore.

Hit play. Get hooked. Welcome to IZYE’s world.
